

MONEY TALKS SEMINAR

FIND OUT HOW TO
TALK TO YOUR KIDS
ABOUT MONEY AT A
FREE “MONEY TALKS”
SEMINAR

87% of what kids know about managing money they learn from their parents, but most parents don't fully understand how best to teach their children smart financial habits.

Attendees will leave the seminar with a greater understanding of the importance of financial literacy for children, ways to help them make good decisions and the benefits of smart choices.

It provides an opportunity for parents to learn ways to help kids successfully navigate the pitfalls of managing money.

The program is education-focused and not product specific.
