LIVE BAND SHOW

Local band Jack Knife to perform Friday at Posse Lodge

MANDY MARKSTEINER
Special to the Monitor

The members of local rock band Jack Knife, did not get discouraged when the neighbors complained about the noise.

Instead they saw it as a challenge and converted the shed in singer Jerry Adair's backyard into a completely soundproofed rehearsal space.

The Southern rock/country/hard rock band was formed in 1999 and since the completion of the shed, the band has gone to a whole new level. This summer they recorded their first album, "Bootlegger," which features 10 original songs and is available on Amazon, Rhapsody and iTunes.

All the members - Dan Seitz on drums, David Hensing on bass, James Carothers on lead guitar, Adam Houlton (who has a KRSN 1490 show from 4-7 p.m. every weekday) on rhythm guitar and singer Jerry Adair - grew up in Los Alamos.

Hear their music at 8 p.m. Friday at the Posse Shack. They will play music from their new album "Bootlegger." The band "Rhythm of Magnus" will also play.
